

THE BRYAN DAILY EAGLE

AND PILOT.

Published Every Day Except Sunday.
By THE EAGLE PRINTING CO.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

D. WEBSTER, Manager
A. J. BUCHANAN, EditorEntered as second class matter April 28, 1910, at the postoffice at Bryan, Texas, under the act of March 3, 1879.Rates of Subscription.
One Month $.40
Three Months 1.00
One Year 4.00
Advertising rates on application.Subscribers will confer a favor on the management by telephoning the office promptly when carriers fail to deliver the paper, or when change of residence occurs.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Eagle is authorized to make the following announcements, subject to the action of the July democratic primary:FOR CONGRESS, SIXTH DISTRICT:
RUFUS HARDY,
(of Navarro County.)FOR DISTRICT JUDGE:
JUDGE JOHN WATSON,
(of Cameron.)FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT:
PROF. W. L. POWERS,
E. R. WILLIAMS, A. M., M. Acc.
PROF. NOAH COLEFOR COMMISSIONER PREC. NO. 4:
CLAUDE A. BUCHANAN,
C. P. (Clum) FOSTER,
JESSE H. GAMMON,
CHARLEY PALERMO.FOR COUNTY CLERK:
HORACE O. FERGUSON,
WILL S. HIGGS.FOR COMMISSIONER PREC. NO. 3:
CHARLEY DISTEFANO,
CHAS. MERKA,
J. J. (DARBY) CAHILL.FOR CONSTABLE PRECINCT NO. 4:
J. R. MOON,
C. L. BAKER,
M. M. VANCE.FOR COMMISSIONER PREC. NO. 1:
BEN MOORE,
L. B. SIMPSON,
J. M. ATKINS.FOR COUNTY JUDGE:
L. D. MCGEE,
J. T. MALONEY.FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE
PRECINCT NO. 4:
M. R. PHILLIPS,
W. W. GAINER,
J. J. RAY.FOR COMMISSIONER PREC. NO. 2:
M. B. EASTERS,
WM. MANTHEI,
J. A. COBB.FOR TAX ASSESSOR:
JOHN W. HAMILTON,
J. SIDNEY SMITH.FOR LEGISLATURE, 22D DISTRICT:
O. DAVIS,
(Anderson, Texas.)
J. G. MINKERT.FOR STATE SENATOR, 12TH DIST.:
E. A. DECHERD, JR.,
(of Franklin.)
HON. N. P. HOUS.
(of Mexia.)FOR COUNTY TREASURER:
J. B. PRIDDY.FOR SHERIFF:
T. C. NUNN.FOR TAX COLLECTOR:
W. L. M'GULLOCH.FOR DISTRICT CLERK:
J. W. BARRON.

WHEN MEN MEET.

They are still discussing what transpired, and things that were said and done at the state democratic convention at San Antonio. The latest is from the Temple Mirror under the caption of "When Men Meet" and shows the conduct toward each other and the feeling for each other of those life-long friends, Col. Thos. H. Ball and Senator Joe Bailey, though they were the leaders of the opposing sides in the convention and each one was fighting with all the energy of his soul. The Mirror says:

"There were some unkind things said in the San Antonio convention; some little fellows on both sides made

SUMMER STYLES
FOR YOUNG MEN

Most complete collection of the smartest summer styles in suits for young men. Cool Cloths, Palm Beaches, Mohairs, Dixie Weaves,
in the new Pinch Back or English Models--Beautifully tailored at $7.50 to $15.00

A. M. Waldrop & Co.
BRYAN'S BIG CLOTHING STORE

some little remarks. But when Tom Ballard Joe Bailey crossed swords, it was as the meeting of a MacGregor and a MacAlpine upon the brow of Ben Lamond.

"They were fighting each other and fighting desperately—one the champion of Tom Love and the other the champion of William Polindexter. But in the heat of the battle their hand-hood stood the test of fire. 'I would not say anything in this world to hurt Tom Ball,' declared the brilliant ex-senator. 'He was my friend when I needed a friend. He closed his law office and took a stand by my side in an hour of trouble. He defended that which was dearer than life to me—my honor. Nothing can ever come between us to cause me to forget that.'"
"Later Mr. Ball took occasion to refer to Mr. Bailey as one of the greatest of democratic statesmen.

"If all men could differ on political and moral issues, as these men differ and not permit that privilege to overshadow the respect and courtesy that one honest human being is due another, this would be a far better world.
"But all men are not big enough to do it. There are those whose sole stock in trade is calumny and abuse.
When one differs with them it is because that one is vile and wicked.
We could call names here in this respect, but shall refrain. It is enough to say that we have them and that they ought to get a splendid lesson out of the facts above referred to."

The Eagle congratulates Mr. A. M.
Waldrop upon his election as president of the Commercial Club. It is an honor which was entirely unsought, yet at the same time was most worthily bestowed. Mr. Waldrop has taken an active interest and an active part in all public affairs since reaching his majority and thereby showed his loyalty and keen interest in the progress and development of his home town and county. He is a young man full of energy, which coupled with his clear judgment and well defined ideas of civic growth and improvement, insure for him a successful and profitable administration.

These days are full of glorious sunshine. If a lot of us old grouches could absorb a few meases of it, it would no doubt be good for our constitution and by-laws.

The crops, both corn and cotton, are growing like magic. How do we know it? Uncle John Coulter told us so. When Uncle John acknowledges that crops are doing well, you can bet your roll they are humping themselves.

When a newspaper contributor finds that he can not stir the populace by signing his stuff "Old Subscriber,"
"Veritas" or "Civitas," he gets riled and shoots something hot and signs it
"Flat Justitia."—Houston Post.

If none of the above will have the desired effect, what's the matter with "Semper Idem" and "Vox Populi."

An awning was overloaded during the preparedness parade in Dallas
Tuesday afternoon and in the collapse a score of people were injured. A great many people are by preparedness like the man who beheld the moon in his brother's eye, but considered not the beam in his own eye.
They go hog wild on national preparedness, but forget about the little things at their own doors. The Dallas awning for instance.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

"I don't ask people how they are any more." "Why not?" "I've decided it is better to take it for granted that they are well than to give them a chance to spend half an hour of my time telling me about their ailments."
—Detroit Free Press.

Great souls suffer in silence.—
Schiller.

"It's the pen for me," boasted the man who had forged a check. "It's the 'pen' for you," said the judge a few weeks later.—Indianapolis Star.

The success of most things depends upon knowing how long it will take to succeed.—Montesquieu.

A true friend embraces our objects as his own. We feel another mind tent on the same end, enjoying it, insuring it, reflecting it and delighting in our devotion to it.—Channing.

The society of women is the foundation of good manners.—Goethe.

"I put through a big financial deal last week," remarked Mr. Dustin Stax. "I thought you said you were going on a pleasure trip." "Could there be any pleasure greater than putting through a big financial deal?"

—Washington Star.

It seldom happens that a premature shoot of genius ever arrives at maturity.—Quintilian.

"That lady plays bridge every weekday of the world. Isn't she wonderful?" "Can't say that she is. By wonderful we mean something to wonder at. Now, if she remained at home occasionally and looked after her home, that would be wonderful."— Louisville Courier-Journal.

Behold us, the rich and the poor,
Dear Lord in Thy service draw near;
One consecrate a precious coin,
One droppeth only a tear;
Look, Master, the love is here!
—Harriet McEwen Kimball.

"Little boy, little boy, you shouldn't fight that way." "Hold off with your peace talk, lady. One more punch on the nose from me and I'll have this kid ready to listen to you."—Detroit Free Press.

Come, follow me, and leave the world to its babblings.—Dante.

President Wilson talks literature
even when he merely chats.—Chicago News.

Maybe Austria's offensive against the Italians will fail, but so long as all the offenses are started by the Central Powers it is hard to believe they are on their last legs.—Charleston News and Courier.

AS THE
NEWS BREAKS

Austin, Texas, May 31.—Active preparation for the organization of nine additional units for the Texas National Guard were commenced yesterday by Adjutant General Henry Hutchings, acting under instructions from Governor Ferguson.

When the first call was issued for the new militia units, a number of applications were received from all over Texas for representation in the new guard. Two of the additional units will be batteries of artillery, which will be located in San Antonio and Dallas. When the additional nine units have been organized the strength of the Texas National Guard will be 7500 men.

Austin, Texas, May 31.—With a determination to putting an end to violations of the fish and game laws of the state, Will W. Wood, state fish, game and oyster commissioner, has undertaken an extensive investigation to be made in the northeast portion of Texas.

For some time past reports have been received by the department of illegal fishing and killing of game out of season. One of the reports advised that two alleged illegal nets had been confiscated by a local deputy and destroyed near Texarkana. Commissioner Wood has detailed Chief Game Warden C. B. Beasley to conduct the probe. He has commenced his tour of investigation.

Money In The Bank Is A Good Investment

We invite you to become a customer of this bank, save a part of your earnings each week, and become independent
It is the only way to be ready for the opportunity. Do it now, don't put it off until to-morrow.

TOMORROW IS THE THIEF OF THRIFT.

FIRST STATE BANK AND TRUST COMPANY

"GUARANTY FUND BANK."

I have just secured agency of the giant of the Southwest
THE SOUTHWESTERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.
of Dallas, Texas.

which makes this efficiently equipped Insurance office complete in every particular. The Southwestern is an acknowledged leader, and we will be pleased to show and explain their attractive and up to date policies.

GEORGE A. ADAMS

PHONES 539 and 265.

PARKER BLDG.

SMILES.

Not Filling.

Lady of the House: You say you haven't had anything to eat today?
Tramp: Lady, de only t'ing I've swallowed today is an insult.—Answers.

Pedestrian Osculation.

"Yes, sir! I suppose I've kissed a girl on every hundred square feet of this beach."
"Must have been some trouble to keep her moving about."—Judge.

Only Chance.

"Your wife is eating too much fluffy stuff downtown. She'll have to change her diet."
"Don't know how I'll manage it, doc, unless I get the druggist to install a mashed potato sundae or a hash mousse."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Located.

"Fred (dear, I feel it in my bones that you are going to take me to the theatre tonight."
"Which bone, darling?"
"I'm not sure, but I think it's my wishbone."—Michigan Gargoyles.

Impossible.

The minister, not being acquainted with the family, was uncertain how to work out the obituary. Waiting for the bereaved widow he plied his questions to Johnny. "Ah, my boy, perhaps you can tell me what were your father's last words?"
"He didn't have no last words," said Johnny. "Ma stayed with him to the end."—Puck.

A Nervy Suitor.

Her Parent—You must understand, sir, that I want my daughter to have as good a home after marriage as before.

Her Suitor—Well, you're not going to break up housekeeping, are you?
—Boston Transcript.

Father's Liberality.

Mrs. Youngwed (a doctor's daughter)—Did papa say he would do anything for you?
Youngwed—Yes; he said he would operate upon me at any time free of charge.—Pickings.

Contrariness.

"When a girl promises to marry a man, Miss Ginger, isn't it a sure proof that she loves him?"
"Not at all. She might do it just to spite another man."

Suitable Conveyance.

"Mrs. Gaddy says her husband is going to buy her a car."
"Then if he consults the fitness of things he will get her a runabout."— Baltimore American.

Feminine Architecture.

"My wife has planned a gem of a place."
"What's her idea?"
"An eight-room house with 132
closets."—Ex.

Getting Him Located.

"Fizkin is always talking about going to war and how he would like to charge the enemy."
"Charge the enemy—shucks—that fellow ain't got nerve enough to charge a soda fountain."—Florida Times-Union.

Also Important.

"That girl puts on a great many airs
just because she was a May queen.
She ain't such a much."
"Think not?"
"No. I'm to be a June bride."—
Credit Lost.

DR. KIBLER RESIGNED.

The resignation of Dr. T. L. Kibler, as professor of economics at the A.
& M. College, was received today by President Blizzell of that institution.
Dr. Kibler resigned his position with the A. & M. College to accept a position in Washington. He was given a leave of absence in April. President Blizzell is authority for the statement that a successor to Dr. Kibler will be appointed soon.

As the lamented Joel Chandler Harris used to say, our mouth is "dribbling" for a mess of field corn roasting ears.

Another Big Shipment OF PRETTY WHITE TUB SKIRTS

that has proven so popular. Never in our history have we sold so many wash skirts, it's because we have the correct tailored models and splendid values at prices that is within your reach LADIES; call and see them and select your model and size before the stock is broken. Priced $1.00 up to $3.50 for the little fellow. More of them have arrived, both the to TOGS and under TOGS, sizes range 3 to 12 years 50c each.

KAYNEE TOGS

MOTHERS! try KAY-NEE TOGS. you will buy them again.

SAM B. WILSON & COMPANY
THE STORE OF DEPENDABILITY